Preface.

THE Parish Registers of St. John the Evangelist, Coulsdon, to 1812, are contained in three manuscript volumes.

The Register Books call for no especial remark. All the Registers are kept in the safe in the Vestry.

A list of the Rectors from 1269 to 1807 is contained on pp. 457-9 of vol. ii. of Manning and Bray's "History of Surrey" (1809), and the following additions have been communicated by the Rector:—

John Cutts Lockwood . . .	9 Dec. 1820
William Wood	26 Nov. 1830
George Randolph	28 Apr. 1841
John Robert Hall	26 June 1863
Hon. George Wingfield Bourke .	29 Mar. 1866
David Dale Stewart . . .	11 Oct. 1878
Henry Granville Dickson . .	30 Nov. 1896

Anything within brackets [ ] will be understood as explanatory interpolations by the Editor.

Space has been saved in the printing of the Register by adopting uniformly the initial letters "s" and "d" to indicate "son" and "daughter"; and the repetition of the formula "were baptized," or "married," or "buried," has also been avoided, with a similar result.

The view of the Church is taken from Cracklow's "Churches and Chapels in Surrey," 1827.

Thanks are due to the Rector, the Rev. H. Granville Dickson, M.A. (Cambridge), for his kind permission to print the Registers, and also for the facilities of access to the Registers that he at all times so courteously afforded to the Editor.

Register II.

[This Register Book contains what purports to be "A Transcript of the Register-Book of the Parish of Cullesdon, containing Births and Burials from the Year of our Lord 1653." The first 33 pages, containing entries to 21 June 1683, are in the handwriting of John Caulfeild, Curate. At the foot of each of the pages he has written the following, "Faithfully Transcrib'd. By me John Caulfeild, Curate," with 7 different dates as the work proceeded, the first being May 18th, 1766, and the last August 12th, 1766.

It is then continued by another hand throughout down to 22 Feb. 1767, the first real entry of Register II.

The Editor has compared the entries with the original Register No. I., and has ignored the existence of the transcribed entries from 15 Mar. 1653—1 Feb. 1767 inclusive, as they are not what they purport to be.

The next entry following the last above-thus becomes the first entry of Register II.—Editor.]

A COPY OF A LETTER FROM THE REVD MR MANNING TO THE REVD MR EDMD. FERRERS, IN ANSWER TO ONE WHICH MR FERRERS WROTE REQUESTING THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION FOR THE USE OF MR GOODRICKE RECTOR OF COULSDON.

Godalming, Jany. 31st. 1781.

Dear Sr,

The subject of Parochial Chapels, long since gone to decay, is one of those which much greater proficients in this way than myself wou'd find great difficulty in throwing that light upon which I wou'd wish to give you.

At the time of the General Survey of England by William the Conqur. there was a Manor at Coulsdon called Watendone to which it is said there belong'd a Church; i.e. not parochial, but a place of Worship for the Tenants of that particular Manor, endow'd with the Tithes thereof.

In a Taxation of the Spirituals of the Archdeaconry of Surrey, suppos'd to have been made in 20. Edwd. I. the Benefice of Coulsdon is recited by the title of Ecclesia de Coulsdon cum Capellâ; & also in another Taxation made by Bp. Beaufort in the beginning of Henry IV. And this was probably the aforesaid Chapel of the Manor of Whatendon, then converted into a Chapel of Ease to the Parochial Church of Coulsdon. But in no other part of the Bishop's Register from beginning to end is there any mention made of a Chapel there, or Institution given to the Benefice in any single instance by the title of Colesdon cum Capellâ.

But as there certainly was a Chapel there in the time of Edwd. I. & even in that of Hen. IV. there can be little doubt but that whose remains Mr Goodricke speaks of, is the same; & if, upon enquiry, he finds it to be within the Manor of Whatendon, it is the same also, probably, that is spoken of in the Domesday record.

I remember to have been once in company with a Mr Lucas (a substantial Yeoman) of Coulsdon, who told me there were the Remains of a Chapel on his Farm. Perhaps this is what Mr Goodricke means. If Mr G——— shou'd be stopp'd in his inquiries, by not finding at present such a Manor as Whatendon in his Parish, let him inquire whether there be such Farms as Welcomb's & Laurence's; for if he shou'd find the Chapel in either of these, he will have found the Chapel of Whatendon, those Farms having been situate in that Manor.

I shou'd be glad to know the iſsue of Mr Goodricke's farther searches—particularly whether Mr Lucas's Chapel be what Mr G——— meant—whether his Farm be Welcomb's or Laurence's —& if not whether it be notwithstanding within the Manor of Whatendon.

If he shou'd succeed so far as, by these few lights, to ascertain any thing, it will be more than is ordinarily to be expected on this subject in general. For Chapels of ease there were formerly many, as we find by some accidental remark in the Registers, but whose origin it is as difficult to settle as the time when they went to decay; they having been erected at different periods by diffᵗ. Lords of Manors, as the number of their Tenants & their distance from the Mother Church made it requisite, or their own Liberality dictated.

Add to this that, besides these Parochial Chapels, it was very common for Men of property (whether Lords of Manors, or not) if they liv'd at a considerable distance from their Parish Church to procure the Bp's Licence for a Chapel within their Mansion.

Instances of this are perpetually occurring in the Registers: And in Coulsdon particularly.

24 Feb. 132$\frac{3}{4}$ Peter de Purley & Iulian his Wife had Licence for their Chapel in their mansion at Holegh (perhaps a mistake for Purley) in Coulsdon. And again 2 May 1357 Peter at Wode had Licence for another at his house at la Wode in Coulsdon.

Receiv'd the favour of this further intelligence from Mr Manning at Godalming June 30th. 1786.

Watendone in Colesdon, at the time of the Gen. Survey, belong'd to the Abbey of Chertsey. (Domesday Book.)

37. Hen. 8. Richard & John Gresham Knts. & Tho. Gresham had a grant of two Meſsuages called Welcombs & Laurence's in Watendone, & other Lands there, in the tenure of Tho. Baſset formerly belonging to Chertsey, & now parcel of the Honour of Hampton Court, to hold in chief of the King, on paying a Quit rent of 5s 0$\frac{1}{2}$ per ann. [Pat. of Hen. 8. p. 1.]

2. Jam. 1. Beatrice widow of William Gresham died 22. Mar. 1603-4. seized hereof in jointure, & leaving William her Son & heir, of the age of 58 years. [Inquis. post mort. Beatrice 21. Aug. 1604.]

Mr Hodgkin receiv'd the following information from the Chapel of the Rolls.

The Manor of Gaston's in Surry was granted to John Rede pateñ 29°. H. 8. p. 1ma.

John Rede dy'd seiz'd thereof 37th. H. 8. p. 8va. n: 81.

Preface.

THE Parish of Haslemere is situate in the south-western corner of the county of Surrey, and, as its name implies, forms there the boundary between the counties of Surrey, Sussex, and Hampshire. It lies at the highest point of the valley, between the projecting ridges of Hindhead in Surrey and Blackdown in Sussex, each 800 to 900 feet above sea-level.

The parish is of very irregular shape. It comprises an area of about 1856 acres, and in 1801 had a population of 642.* The radius of a mile and a half from the centre of the town includes not only the whole of the parish itself, but substantial portions of eight others, viz.: Frensham, Thursley, Witley, and Chiddingfold in Surrey, Lurgashall, Fernhurst, and Linchmere in Sussex, and the Tithing of North Ambersham, belonging to the parish of Steep (with Bramshot very close) in Hampshire.

The Parish Church of Frensham is eight miles distant, those of Thursley, Witley, Chiddingfold, and Lurgashall about five miles, Linchmere and Fernhurst about three miles, and Steep ten miles.

The approach to these villages, especially to those on the further side of Hindhead and Blackdown, can have been in former times little better than pack-horse roads, probably almost impassable in winter.

* The civil parish of Haslemere has recently been enlarged by the annexation of part of Thursley. The population is now nearly 3000, and additional churches have been erected in the adjacent parts of Frensham, Thursley, and Witley.

The inhabitants of the groups of houses collected around Haslemere belonging to outlying parishes had been accustomed from the earliest times to avail themselves of this Church for their Christenings, Marriages, and Burials. Consequently something like one-fourth of the following entries properly belong to other parishes, the registers of which to that extent will be incomplete, and missing links in family records must be looked for here.

Haslemere was originally included in the parish of Chiddingfold, and it is not quite clear at what date it was constituted as a separate parish with its own administrative parochial officers and its special allotment of tithe. In 1633 Edynton, Bishop of Winchester, issued a licence for the consecration of the Chapel of Haslemere ("ab antiquo constructam") and the burial-ground around the same. In 1393 a charter for a market and fairs was granted by Richard II. to John Waltham, Bishop of Salisbury, who was then Lord of the Manor of Godalming, within which Haslemere is situate. This charter was renewed in 1596 by Queen Elizabeth to the Bailiff and Burgesses of Haslemere; and from 1584 to the Reform Act of 1832 the Borough of Haslemere (including only the houses in the town) returned two members to Parliament.

In any case, during the whole of the period covered by the following Register, 1573—1812, the Dean and Chapter of Salisbury were Patrons of the livings of Chiddingfold cum Haslemere, which were always held together under one Rector, who resided at Chiddingfold, Haslemere being served by deputy or curates who lived there—some for many years, others only for a short time. Some kept the Registers themselves, others left that duty principally to the parish clerks.

All these circumstances probably account for the frequent and erratic breaks in the sequence of dates as well as for the variety of method and orthography in making the entries.

Among the most careful series is that of Thomas Burges, who commenced Book I., and who was Curate for about twenty-six years. He resided at Haslemere, married and brought up a family there. His Copy from the "Olde Book" (1573—1627) is probably verbatim. His last entry is in 1653, in August of which year an Ordinance of Parliament was issued removing the duty of Registration from the clergy and entrusting it to "an able and honest person" to be approved by a Justice of the Peace, and who was to be paid certain fees for keeping the Register.

No entries seem to have been made in Book I. during the Interregnum, but after the Restoration its use was resumed and continued, with some omissions, up to 1700.

In 1694 an Act (6 and 7 Wm. and Mary, cap. 6) was passed imposing duties on births, marriages, and burials "for enabling his Majesty to carry on the war with France with vigour." This is noted in Book I., pp. 42, 46, 47, 48.

Book II. appears to be the "Parchment Book" directed to be provided under the Ordinance of 1653. Births are therein entered from October 1653 to 1656 and a few for 1657-8. There are some entries of marriages before a Justice, no marriages being lawful unless the ceremony was so performed. The Ordinance of 1653 was confirmed in 1656 except that this proviso was omitted, practically leaving marriages to be celebrated in churches if the parties so desired. Entries follow of Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials, 1661—1676. Also duplicate entries of Burials, 1676—1696, omitted here as they appear in Book I. (see pp. 60, 86, 99). There is a note of Collections on Briefs, 1662—1669, a list of Churchwardens, 1662—1667, and some personal memoranda (as also others in Book I.) by Mr. Joynes the Curate 1684—1700. He seems to have used the Registers freely for this purpose, and he might possibly have been able to account for some of the missing leaves, which however were most likely otherwise blank.

In 1666, by 18 Car. II., cap. 4, passed for the encouragement of woollen manufactures in England, it was enacted that "no person whatever should be buried in any material made up of any other than wool only" under a penalty of £5. This Act was repealed in 1678 by 30 Car. II., cap. 3, and the clauses as to burying in woollen re-enacted with the addition that the persons having charge of the funeral were to deliver an affidavit to the minister that woollen only had been used. The minister was to give notice to the churchwardens, who were to prosecute if no such affidavit had been received within eight days after the burial. This is referred to on pp. 112, 231. The Act was in force for more than 100 years, and was not repealed until 1814, but gradually fell into desuetude, the receipt of an affidavit on June 10th, 1783, being the last recorded in the register.

Book III. commences in 1678 with the burials in woollen and carries on to 1697, Burials for 1698—1700 being entered in Book I., pp. 48, 49. There are also some duplicate entries of Baptisms, but as they appear in their proper course elsewhere they are omitted in this transcript. At the end is an entry of Articles of Belief, written by one of the curates apparently about 1708.

Book IV. has been badly used and is much worn. It contains what seems to be a regular record of Baptisms and Burials from 1701 to 1786, and of Marriages 1701 to 1772, the Marriages after 1754, principally written by the Parish Clerk, being the same as those in the special Register Books VI. and VII.

By 9 Wm. III., cap. 32 (1697-8), ministers were required to set down the respective degrees, quality, and condition of everyone christened, married, or buried, with their residence and other particulars. This provision was complied with from the beginning of this book for Baptisms up to 1714, for Marriages up to about 1705, and for Burials to 1717. Also afterwards for Burials from 1723 to 1743 in most cases, and 1772 to 1786 partially. After 1772 the age is generally given in the Burials.

An Act of Parliament passed in 1750 directed that the 1st day of January after the 31st day of December 1751 was to be called the 1st day of January 1752. "The New Style," however, does not seem to have been adopted in the Haslemere Registers until the 1st of January 1753, all previous entries being made in accordance with the Ecclesiastical year which began on 25th March.

By 23 Geo. III., cap. 67, a duty of 3d. was imposed on every entry of a Birth, Marriage, or Burial after 1st October 1783. This is noted to begin in the Burials in November 1783 and in the Baptisms in September 1784. The Act was repealed in 1794.

Book V. is a continuation of Book IV., Baptisms and Burials, 1787—1812.

Book VI. commences the Register of Marriages in accordance with 26 Geo. II., cap. 33 (1753), "for the prevention of clandestine marriages," by which all Marriages and Banns were to be registered on special forms prescribed by the Act and signed by the parties, the minister, and the witnesses present. After 25th March 1754 any person making or publishing a false entry or forging or destroying a Register or any part thereof was to be deemed guilty of felony, and to suffer death as a felon without benefit of clergy.

Book VII. is a continuation of the Marriages, 1793—1812, the forms being slightly different, and the publication of Banns on a separate form.

Briefs.—In Books I. and III., pp. 64, 86, 101—103, will be found entries of collections made in response to the Briefs or Royal Letters Patent which were issued to all parishes for the relief of losses by fire and other accidents, for re-building and repairing churches, etc., in the years 1662—69 and 1695—99. In Book IV., pp. 201—212, are noted the collections on some 350 Briefs between the years 1701—1744, probably nearly all that were issued within that time. These Briefs were regulated by the Act 4 and 5 Anne, cap. 25 (1705), which was repealed by 9 Geo. IV., cap. 42 (1828). Queen's Letters were occasionally issued afterwards under the authority of the Incorporated Church Building Society, but have now for many years fallen into disuse.

Search has been made among the "Bishops' transcripts" in the custody of the Registrar of the Commissary Court of Surrey, which are kept in the Vestry of the Church of St. Saviour's, Southwark, but only one was found relating to Haslemere, that for the year 1718, signed by Meredith Jones. No check on the accuracy of the Registers has therefore been possible by comparison in that direction.

Any list of the Rectors of Chiddingfold-cum-Haslemere would be more appropriately attached to the Register of Chiddingfold, and is not attempted here.

The last Rector of the united parishes was the Rev. James Legrew Hesse, instituted 8 December 1838. He came to reside at Haslemere in 1848, and placed a curate at Chiddingfold. Previous to his death in September 1868 the patronage of the living had passed to the Bishop of Winchester, who, on the vacancy occurring, presented, as the first Rector of the separated parish of Haslemere, the Rev. Sanders Etheridge, M.A. The patronage afterwards became vested in the Bishop of Lichfield, and then in the Lord Chancellor, who, on the resignation of the Rev. S. Etheridge in 1897, presented the present Rector, the Rev. George Herbert Aitken, B.A., to the Benefice.

To both of these last-mentioned Rectors the writer has to express his grateful acknowledgement for facilities given in transcribing the Registers and for consent to print them.

JOHN WORNHAM PENFOLD.

Haslemere, March 1906.

EXPLANATORY NOTES.

The transcript is "verbatim et literatim" of all the contents of the Registers, subject to contractions here noted or to observations in the text, and is printed throughout in this type.

Editorial notes or explanations are throughout printed in italics.

The letters A, B, C, etc., mark a change in the handwriting of the original. The recurrence of the same letter in different places indicates the same handwriting. The mark Δ signifies that the writing has not been identified with any other and is probably not by the regular Minister or Parish Clerk.

{ signifies that the missing entry has been torn off or worn out.

? before or following a word denotes doubtful name or spelling.

A blank space in the entries denotes a like blank in the original.

The abbreviation "dau." is used in this transcript where "daughter" is full in the original; other abbreviations or peculiarities in spelling the word are as in original.

Some other obvious contractions of names of persons and places are used towards the end.

⊕ Signifies that there is, or was, a memorial or tombstone in the church or churchyard; M. & B. with the mark signifies that the memorial does not now exist, but is referred to in Manning and Bray's "Surrey."

The "Index of Years" will give the pages on which the Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials respectively occur, and the years for which there appears to be no record.

BOOK I.

On fifty-eight leaves of paper (foolscap folio), bound in limp parchment cover, on the outside of which is written :—

HASLEMERE COMMITTEE.

Prod^{d} by the Rev^{d} Jas. Fielding, 5 Apl. 1775.

H. GAMMELL.

N° 3.

The entries were commenced by Thomas Burges, Curate; those entries dated before 1627 have been copied by him from an "old booke," which was apparently kept in an irregular manner. Many years are omitted between the earliest in 1573 and 1627. Burges was Curate from 1627 to 1653, and the record between those dates seems to be perfect. After 1653 there is much irregularity until 1676, and then the Baptisms run on fairly regular until 1700, and the Burials until 1691.

Water mark in paper of Book I., two-thirds full size.

On inside of fly-leaf, the lower half of which is torn off, is written :—
